

ENGLISH LEARNER ONLINE COURSE SERIES

SUPPORT THE ACADEMIC AND LINGUISTIC DEVELOPMENT OF STUDENTS WHO ARE LEARNING ENGLISH AS AN ADDITIONAL LANGUAGE.

To realize the incredible potential of our increasingly multilingual and multicultural PreK-12 student population, teachers and researchers need to understand how to support the academic and linguistic development of students who are learning English as an additional language. This fully online course series affords teachers flexibility as they learn how to provide quality instruction for English learners. School districts may enroll cohorts at discounted tuition rates.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

- Six fully online courses for teachers
- Can be taken as a series, for Virginia add-on ESL endorsement
- Can be taken one at a time for professional development or recertification points
- Can be part of an online M.Ed. in Curriculum & Instruction with an ESL focus
- Can be used for initial licensure through Virginia's alternative route
- Can be part of an online M.Ed.

EL COURSES

EDIS 5422	EDUCATION ACROSS CULTURES
EDIS 5423	ENGLISH LINGUISTICS
EDIS 7700	FOUNDATIONS OF READING INSTRUCTIONS
EDIS 5424	SECOND LANGUAGE ACQUISITION & ESL METHODS K-12
EDIS 5470	ESL ASSESSMENT & CURRICULUM DESIGN
EDIS 5270	TEACHING READING & WRITING FOR ELLS

CONTACT

<https://curry.virginia.edu/academics/non-degree-english-language-learning-prek-12-online-course-series>

Dr. April Salerno

aprilsalerno@virginia.edu