Overview:

The Educational Leadership endorsement courses are designed for teachers who have a Master's degree, a valid Virginia Postgraduate Professional teaching License or equivalent from another state, and at least two years of successful teaching experience.

You will be provided preparation for administrative and/or supervisory roles in public and private schools.

Earn your endorsement by taking 7 courses over 3 semesters in one calendar year.

During your course work Longwood faculty will help you prepare to take the School Leaders Licensure Assessment (SLLA) before applying to the Virginia Department of Education for the endorsement.

If there is sufficient interest in your region, courses will be available at a location within an hour's drive.

Program at a Glance:

- Courses are developed specifically for licensed teachers with at least two years' experience in public or private schools.
- Successful completion of the courses meets eligibility requirements for an endorsement in Administration and Supervision, PreK-12.
- Prepares administrators/supervisors to perform five main functions:
 - Participate in establishing goals and policies.
 - Direct the development of programs designed to achieve goals and purposes.
 - Coordinate program planning/implementation.
 - Manage resources effectively.
 - Evaluate the effectiveness and efficiency of educational functions.
